To Whom It May Concern:

If you are looking for a campaign consultant, do not hire American City Bureau (ACB).

Typically, consultants are experts at doling out advice, but come up short on delivery. ACB delivers.

Consultants are experts at creating grandiose plans. ACB commits to a collaborative relationship.

Consultants are experts at over-promising. ACB constructs specific, date-related goals and creates a strategic plan to get results. It also knows how to adjust that plan mid-stream if necessary.

ACB's staff is expert at coaching, cajoling, challenging, encouraging and celebrating your successes. They are honest and frank, smart in their craft and down-to-earth in the relationship they build with you.

American City Bureau commits to becoming part of your team. Its business model is built on creating a partnership with its clients.

We have seen all of these wonderful qualities in the staff of ACB firsthand at the Society of the Little Flower in Darien, Illinois. Leslie Biggins Mollsen and John Biggins head up ACB, but the talent doesn't stop there. Everyone on their staff is of top caliber. They are leading us to success in our campaign goal.

Character counts for a lot. It always has, but these days character and integrity are getting a bit harder to find. ACB has character. It has integrity.

By the way, the ACB team is also comprised of genuinely good people.

Sincerely,

Rev. Robert E. Colaresi, O.Carm.

The Mission of the Society of the Little Flower is to promote devotion to St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus, the Carmelite Nun and Doctor of the Church. Through prayers and donations, friends of St. Thérèse enable Carmelites to continue her "Shower of Roses" in their ministries and in the education of seminarians.
